Judge Lyman and Mrs. Lyman (whose maiden name was Abbie Margaret Hunt) were married at the home of the bride's mother on Chestnut Hill, of the bride's mother on Chestnut Hill, Sept. 19, 1965, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Frederick D. Avery in the presence of two witnesses, one of whom, Mrs. Martha Manley Fuller, is still living in Middletown. The other two present were the officiating clergyman and the bride's mother, both of whom passed on a few years ago, having reached the remarkable age of more than 90 years. Judge and Mrs. Lyman continued to reside in Columbia until the spring of Judge and Mrs. Lyman continued to reside in Columbia until the spring of 1871 when they removed to what is now Versallies in the town of Sprague and in 1873 they removed to Willimantic, where they have since resided, until about two years ago, when they made their legal residence again in Columbia, although they had spent the summers there for the past eight years. Columbia will probably be their home for the rest of their lives.

Mrs. Lyman is a native of that town, the daughter of Anson and Betsey Amy (Manley) Hunt and was born April 16, 1847; her whole life has been devoted to her home and the care of her children and aged mother. Four children have been born to the union, children have been born to the union, all of whom are still living. They are Mrs. Lizzie Doten (Lyman) Tharp of Louisville, Ky., Miss Lillian Lyman, who resides at home and Hollis Hunt Lyman and Samuel Edson Lyman of Willimantic; there are three grand-children, Lyman Tharp, Hardy Tharp and Lillian Margaret Tharp, of Louisville Ky.

ville, Ky.
Judge Lyman, the son of Samuel Edson Lyman, was born in a log hut town of Barrie, Orleans coun-Y., about 30 miles west of Rochester, the place now being known as Eagle Harbor on the Erie canal. The date was November 11, 1843. He is a lineal descendant of Richard Ly-man, who emigrated from the parish of Ongar, Essex county, England, in August, 1631, first settling near Bos-ton, but in 1635 removing to Hart-ford, one of the first settlers of that town, His farm was bounded by Main, Buckingham, Washington and Wada-worth streets: he was buried in the name is among the first settlers on the monument to them in that burial man, a short distance south from Judge Lyman's present home. Judge Lyman remained as home and worked Lyman remained as home and worked on his father's farm summers, attending the Center district school in the winter, until the spring of 1863, when he went to Hartford. Here he worked in Colt's willow ware factory for two years, thoroughly learning the trade of making willow ware furniture and at present he is probably the only person in Connecticut who is able to make that class of furniture, alto make that class of furniture, al-though it is more than 40 years since he has actively engaged at that work After he was married he lived on a farm, working much at his trade until the spring of 1871 when he en-gaged in the rallroad business, serv-ing as station agent at Versailles and freight clerk at Willimantic for the old

H. R. & F. railroad, until the win-ter of 1873. His next business activity was as traveling salesman for the American Basket Co. of New Britain and the Williams Manufacturing Co. of Northampton, Mass. In the spring of 1877 he went to Baltimore and engaged as instructor in basket making ver convicts in the Maryland peni tentiary, where he remained for one year and then returned to Williman-tic, where his family had remained, and took the superintendency of the Windham almshouse, Mrs. Lyman acting as matron.

They remained there twelve years, being replaced by a democrat, which Judge Lyman was not. While at the Windham almshouse Mr. Lyman took a keen interest in the administration of the pauper laws of the state, being the instigator of many reforms both in the paper laws and their adminis-tration. He was looked upon as one of the best posted men along those lines in the state. About one year after they went there the building was burned and during their administration all the present buildings on the place were planned and erected.

In 1890 Mr. Lyman was appointed the state of the st census enumerator for Willimantic and in the fall he took the manufac-turing statistics for Tolland and Wind-nam counties for the 1890 census. In the spring of 1891 he engaged in the fire insurance business and about the same time, in connection with George E. Stiles, he was instrumenta n the organization of the Willimant Building and Loan association and was elected its first secretary and collector, a position he hts held ever since, now serving his twenty-fifth

Judge Lyman has been a member of the Masonic fraternity for 47 years and both himself and wife are sixth legree members of the Grange. During the summer of 1891 he was engaged as the correspondent for a Hartford paper and for several years he covered the entire eastern part of the state and reported many events of statewide interest, among them being the celebrated East Thompson wreck, the Mansfield barn burnings, the Ide-Hibberd affair of Woodstock and the celebrated Bertha Melish case, Bertha Melish being the daughter of a retired Killingly clergyman who disappeared from Holyoke college, where she was a student, and has never been heard from.

Much of his more important work took him to Hartford on a late train at night, writing the story in the office there and returning in the early morning, About 196 he resigned his position as local correspondent and assumed the editorial work of the Wil-

It is doing pretty well for a small town like Columbia to celebrate two golden weddings within about one week, both couples having been married in the town and by the same minister. Mr. and Mrs. James P. Little passed their fiftieth anniversary sept. 11 and on Sunday, Sept. 19, Judge and Mrs. Dwight A. Lyman will observe the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage.

The anniversary of Judge and Mrs. Lyman will be observed in a quiet way at their new home about one-half a mile west of Columbia Green. No invitations have been sent out and whatever recognition of the event will be in a wholly informal way; it is quite probable that the long-married couple will attend service at the village church in the morning and from 3 colock in the afternoon to 10 oclock. Ret. Judge and Mrs. Lyman & Co.

At Lyman & Co.

Both Judge and Mrs. Lyman are at present enjoying the best of health, both feeling in better condition/to live to celebrate their sixtleth anniversary than they did ten years ago to live to celebrate their fiftieth. Their new to celebrate their fiftieth. Their new house is Columbia is fitted with all the conveniences of heat, water and bath that are enjoyed by city people. Judge Lyman was elected first selectman of Columbia in October, 1914 and has been nominated by the republicans to succeed himself this fall.

In politics Judge Lyman has always been a staunch republican, his first presidential vote being for General Grant. He was about a week too young to vote for Abraham Lincoln for young to vote for Abraham Lincoln for his second term. Both Judge and Mrs. Lyman have for more than 50 years been staunch believers in Spiritualism, Mrs. Lyman being in her early years a very convincing medium, although never appearing in public or outside of the home surroundings. Judge Lyman has for many years been the managing trustee of the First Spiritualist society of Williamtic and is now serving his second term as president of the Connecticut State Spiritualist association.

from time to time he had used the money belonging to the bank and had put in a worthless note in its place. The commissioner said that Burton remained at the bank while the ex-amination is being made. Financial Standing Will Be Unimpair-

The bank treasurer has a surety bond of $20,000 and he told the com-missioner that he had equity in prop-erty of about $7,000. Commissioner Sturgis said that accepting Burton's statement as correct, the bank should not lose more than $10,000 and probably its financial standing will be unimpaired, the surplus being ample, apparently, to take care of the loss.

Deposits of $3,070,216. The bank's return to the bank com missioner showed that on January 1, 1915, the deposits were $3,074,216, that the surplus was $63,000 and that a four per cent, dividend was paid last year. Individual deposits were limited to $1,-

Commissioner-Sturges said the run of depositors just before the bank closed was not large.

There were fully one hundred persons outside the bank building when the institution was closed for the day. CROWD OF 5,000 PERSONS

Following Announcement of Shortage-Threats Made to Lynch Burton.

Ansonia, Conn., Sept. 16.-There was a free for all fight tonight between the entire police department of the city and a crowd of 5,000 persons following the announcement that State Bank Commissioner Everett J. Sturges had taken charge of the affairs of the Sav-ings Bank of Ansonia. The treasurer of the institution, former Mayor Franklin Burton, is under arrest, Franklin Burton, is under a charged with embezzling $36,000.

Crowd Became Unruly. 'At 6 o'clock, when the factories were losed, a great crowd gathered in front of the banking house to read the notice that had been posted. Finally the as-semblage became unruly and soon attempts were made to batter down the doors. There were threats made to lynch Mr. Burton,

Mayor Threatened to Sound Riot Call Mayor Schumaker pushed his way through the throng and attempted speak. He said that if the people did not disperse he would sound the riot call. He was jeered and there were "We want Burton!"

Burton Hurried Out Back Window. The bank officers became alarmed at the threatening attitude of the mob and Burton was hurried out of a back window of the bank building by two policemen. He was taken through back escorted to the city hall and locked up.

Police With Drawn Revolvers. The police, in the meantime, with drawn revolvers, were trying the best to cope with the situation. Then the mayor sounded a general alarm of fire. All the apparatus of the city responded The firemen were ordered to turn the hose on the crowd, but they were unable to follow out orders, for hundreds of persons seized the hose and wrested it away from the firemen.

Clubs Used Freely. The police used their clubs freely and there were many fist fights. There were scores of weeping women the police regained control of the situation and the crowd melted away. The bank building has been roped off and policemen are on guard. Lcct in Real Estate Deals, The alleged shortage in Burton's ac counts was discovered by Commissioner Sonats, who says that the treasurer has confessed to abstracting a of the Masonic fraternity for 47 years and both himself and wife are sixth legree members of the Grange.

> Directors' Statement. The directors of the bank issued the following statement:
> "It was reported to us that the de falcation was on the part of the treasurer. Francisco Burton, who is now under arrest. Indications at present are that it will not exceed $36,000. This amount is partly covered by a bond furnished by Mr. Burton of $20,000. As the bank has a surplus of $63,000, shown by the report of July 1, 1915, it is believed that the bank is perfectly solid and all depositors will be paid when the commissioners are through. A discrepancy having been found in the accounts of this bank, the directors have voted to require a 60 days notice for all withdrawals of the surface of the congress of any other amendment dealing with the issue of national woman suffrage. falcation was on the part of the treas-

BRITISH EMBARGO DOES NOT INCLUDE BIBLES. Only Export Which is Going Through to Germany Unimpeded.

London, Sept. 16.-The only exports n bulk which are going through unimpeded to Germany nowadays are sent from the warehouses of the British and Foreign Bible society, and consist of Testaments, Psalm books, and portions of the Gospels. Over a million books of this character have been thus shipped since the beginning of the war. The society is supplying scriptural reading to all the nations at

This of course is quite apart from the normal work of the society. The past year has been the busiest in its long history. During August the ex-port included over 350 cases, weighing 40 tons. For the Russian armies alone 40 tons. For the Russian armies alone 450,000 Testaments have been provided, partly by the help of contributions from Sunday school scholars in the United States. The bulk of the books sent out during the past year have been bound in khaki for field service, Even the German prisoners in Japan, taken at Klao-Chau, have been supplied.

Wily Financiers.

The men who have come over her from Great Britain and France, in the opinion of Wall Street, are master players in the game of world finance. Like all good players, they do not be-tray by their words what their inten-tions are, nor do they place all their cards on the table at once, as Wall Street views it. Consequently it is expected that there will be many more developments before it is seen wha thy are really striking for and wheth

"Figures have been collected going to show the total exports in recent years of cotton, grain and other foodstuffs to Great Britain; the totals of such figures having such a direct bearing upon the question of establishing credits in this country. The figures as published today give the total commodity exports of this country last year to Great Britain, Canada and France as approximately $1,600,008,000. The greater part of these were four articles of normal export. These figures, if correct, as we assume them ures, if correct, as we assume them to be, indicate the great volume of international trade involved in this whole situation,
